The majority of those matters were in federal district court;
 - (c) In 2005, I practiced as a contract attorney with Grimball & Cabaniss, LLC. I handled all DSS appointments for abuse and neglect cases for the law firm in Charleston, SC and Kingstree, SC. I also handled all minor settlement hearings in Probate and Circuit Court, and worked on personal injury defense matters;
 - (d) In 2005 to 2006 I also practiced as a contract attorney with Savage & Savage, P.A. I divided my time between Grimball and Cabaniss and Savage & Savage, P.A. While working for Savage & Savage, I worked on personal injury cases, securities litigation, and criminal defense matters. My responsibilities including legal research and writing on civil and criminal defense issues;
 - (e) In 2006 I became as an associate with the law firm Query Sautter Gliserman & Price, LLC. My practice was extremely diverse. Immediately, I began representing clients in Family Court, in matters regarding child custody, divorce, and equitable distribution. During the course of my practice, I represented criminal defense clients in Magistrate Court, the Court of General Sessions, and United States Federal District Court. I have represented clients in business litigation disputes, serving as chief counsel in the trial of those cases. I have also represented clients in personal injury and wrongful death cases, serving as second chair during trials. As an

- associate and subsequently as a partner, I also appeared before the US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, in brief writing and oral argument. In 2008, I was certified as a Family Court Mediator and began mediating cases regarding abuse and neglect, divorce, equitable distribution, spousal support, child custody, and child support. During the time, I was also appointed as a guardian ad litem by the Family Court in contested custody cases. Many times, I was selected because I was fluent in Spanish;
- (f) In late 2011, I was offered partnership in the law practice, and it became known as Query Sautter Price & Forsythe, LLC, in 2012 and later Query Sautter Forsythe, LLC. As my practice continues to evolve, I represent clients in more complex litigation, particularly in Family Court. I am frequently asked to serve as co-counsel with other attorneys outside my law firm on complex Family Court matters, which require additional legal research or intense litigation and court room presentation.
- 15. Please answer the following (if you are a judge and are not seeking a different type of judgeship, this question is inapplicable):

 Divorce Many of my family court cases focus on divorce. I have represented
 - Divorce. Many of my family court cases focus on divorce. I have represented litigants in divorce cases focused on fault based grounds such as adultery, physical cruelty, habitual alcohol or drug use. I have also represented many litigants in divorce cases focused on one year's continuous separation. Some of the marriages are brief. In 2013, I represented a client who was getting a divorce after almost fifty (50) years of marriage. In the case of, Christenson v. Christenson, 2013-DR-10-2100, Plaintiff filed for separate support and maintenance. As counsel for the Defendant, were able to prove adultery on the part of Defendant, which defeated the separate support and maintenance claim. We then resolved the issues of equitable distribution. The parties had a sizeable marital estate.
 - (1) Equitable Division of Property. Most all of the divorce cases I handle deal with equitable division of property. Sometimes these issues are extremely complex because the parties' finances are tied into joint business ventures, real estate ventures, and securities acquired before and during the marriage. I utilize and am comfortable with forensic accountants and certified public accountants to discovery and process the financial information. I utilize discovery in order to uncover information regarding accounts in order to make sure that my client has a complete picture of assets and liabilities. I have also served as a mediator in equitable division cases, and have been successful in having the parties come to settlement terms. In the matter of Southgate v. Southgate, 2011-DR-10-4438 and 2011-DR-10-4450, I represented the wife of a physician. The parties had a long term marriage with a variety of property subject to equitable distribution. Through the use of certified public accountants we were able to allocate the parties' property by agreement. Plaintiff also received health insurance and spousal support.

- (2) Child Custody. I have served as a guardian ad litem and mediator in various child custody cases. In my child custody litigation, I have utilized guardians ad litem, child custody evaluators, and mediators. Child custody is one of the most contentious areas of family law practice. I have litigated numerous UCCJEA cases, included but not limited Griffin v. Weaver, 2012-DR-08-1122.
- (3) Adoption. I have handled few adoptions, but I do have some experience in adoptions. In 2012, I handled to conclusion the adult adoption for a woman who had been raised by the petitioner. It was a unifying family moment, finally including the biological child of the mother into the family unit after forty years. While I do not work in this area of practice frequently, I understand the statutory requirements for adoption.
- (4) Abuse and Neglect. I have handled many abuse and neglect cases. In 2012 I successfully handled an abuse and neglect case in defense of the Father who was serving as a member of the armed services accused of abuse based upon his diagnosis of PTSD. DSS v. Buncum, 2009-DR-10-1792. The matter was heavily litigated, and I personally handled the depositions of several witnesses in the case. That matter was set for a day certain trial. On the day of trial, DSS conceded the matter and the case was closed by agreement of the parties. I have also served as a mediator in DSS Abuse and Neglect Cases.
- Juvenile Justice. In 2010, I represented a juvenile charged with Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill, Armed Robbery, and Possession of a Firearm during the Commission of a Violent Crime, among other charges. State of SC v. Juvenile, 2010-JU-10-610, 2010-JU-10-611, 2010-JU-10-612, 2010-JU-10-613, 2010-JU-10-614. After an initial appearance in the Family Court and filing discovery motions, and alibi motions, I was able to have all charges dismissed against the juvenile.
- 16. What is your rating, if any, by any legal rating organization, such as, Best Lawyers, Chambers, Legal 500, Martindale-Hubbell, Who's Who Legal, Super Lawyers, etc.? If you are currently a member of the judiciary, list your last available rating, if any.
 - (a) Super Lawyer Rising Star, 2013;
 - (b) AVVO Rating 9.3/10.
- 17. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the past five years?
 - (a) Federal: I have appeared in federal court on many occasions in reference to civil matters and criminal matters. I have also handled two appellate level matters, and have appeared in oral argument before the US Courts of Appeal in the Fourth Circuit. One unpublished opinion was rendered. The second matter was resolved favorably by mediation prior to the scheduling of oral argument;
 - (b) State: I have appeared regularly in Summary, Magistrate, Family, and Circuit Court in the last five years. I have handled civil and criminal matters in the circuit court. I am most frequently in the Family Court, appearing weekly to bi-weekly before a Family Court judge regarding matters of divorce, child custody, visitation, support, or abuse and neglect.
- 18. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, domestic, and other matters during the past five years?

- (a) Civil: 25%;
- (b) Criminal: 20%;
- (c) Domestic: 50%;
- (d) Other: Mediation and guardian ad litem work 5%.
- 19. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the past five years involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?
 - (a) Jury: 5%;
 - (b) Non-Jury: 75%.

Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters?

In jury trial matters, I generally serve as associate/co-counsel. In one instance I have been chief counsel. In non-jury matters, I have served as chief counsel and associate/co-counsel.

- 20. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.
 - (a) Mincey v. Mincey and MLM, Inc., 2005-CP-10-3899. This matter was a 2008 bench trial in the Court of Common Pleas regarding language in a Family Court Order. I represented the Defendant. The parties were divorced but continued working together in a partnership. A dispute arose during the winding up of the partnership. Plaintiff demanded additional money in distributions. Defendant denied that Plaintiff was entitled to any additional money. After a one day trial with various witnesses, the Court took the matter under advisement. The Court found in favor of the Defendant. This matter was significant because the language of the Final Order and Decree of Divorce was critical in the outcome of the Common Pleas case;
 - (b) Angelic Brown and Trojan Bell, Individually and as Personal Representatives of the Estate of Travone L. Bell, Decedent v. The City of North Charleston Police Department and Charleston County Sheriff's Office, 2006-CP-10-2996. This was a wrongful death survival action where a minor died in the custody of the Charleston County Sheriff's Office after he was arrested by the North Charleston Police Department. The minor had ingested cocaine during his arrest. Police pulled a bag of crack cocaine from the minor's mouth. Despite the ingestion, North Charleston Police Department failed to obtain medical attention for the minor. On the night he was booked at the Charleston County Detention Center the minor suffered a cardiac infarction. He never regained consciousness and died weeks later. The case went to trial in 2009, but the jury did not find gross negligence as required under the SC Tort Claims Act. The case was important however, because the City of North Charleston changed its policies regarding the ingestion of narcotics and the appropriate law enforcement response;
 - (c) Lewis v. Lewis, 2009-DR-10-1492. This was a highly contested child custody matter which included a relocation issue in a foreign country. I represented the Defendant/Mother against whom a variety of allegations were made. Prior to the temporary hearing, a guardian ad litem was appointed and conducted an investigation. In light of the Guardian ad Litem's report, the parties agreed Plaintiff/Father would have custody of the minor child. Plaintiff relocated with child to England. The matter was heavily litigated, with numerous motion hearings, emergency motion hearings, and rules to show cause. The parties engaged in extensive discovery which included, psychological evaluations of the parents and the child. During the course of the case, the guardian ad litem was removed from the case and the Family Court appointed a new guardian ad litem. The parties attended mediation on three separate occasions. On the eve of trial, and after two years of litigation, the parties came to an agreement in 2011. Plaintiff and Defendant would have joint custody of the minor child who would remain in the primary custody of Plaintiff. Defendant was not ordered to pay child support. Plaintiff agreed to pay Defendant/Mother a large portion of her attorney fees and costs associated with the action;

- John Koon, as the Personal Representative of the Estate of Chavis Berley v. Ruby Deaton, 2011-CP-36-549. SC Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Company v. Ruby Deaton, and John Koon, as the Personal Representative of the Estate of Chavis Berley, 2011-CP-36-91. This was a wrongful death and survival action, which was resolved after successful litigation in a declaratory judgment action. The action was filed on behalf of the estate of minor who had died as a result of strangulation on playground equipment. The declaratory judgment action was filed on the grounds that the minor child was a resident relative of the Defendant, Ruby Deaton and therefore fell under an exclusion in the homeowner's policy. Many family court documents were utilized as evidence in this case. The issue of grandparent custody played a prominent role in the litigation. The Circuit Court determined that the minor child was not a resident relative and therefore, Farm Bureau's Declaratory Judgment action was denied. We were subsequently able to settle the wrongful death survival action in favor of the Estate;
- (e) Griffin v. Weaver, 2012-DR-08-122. This was a UCCJEA case wherein the home state of the child was in dispute. The matter of jurisdiction, pursuant to the UCCJEA was at issue. At the commencement of the action, the Defendant had resided in Virginia with the minor child, but had moved to Arizona as a result of her new husband's honorable discharge from the US Navy. Defendant filed an action for custody in Arizona. Plaintiff filed an action for custody one day prior to Defendant's filing in SC-and was able to obtain emergency custody of the parties' minor child. I was associated as counsel and became chief counsel on behalf of Defendant. I filed a Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Jurisdiction under the UCCJEA. During the course of the case, the minor child was returned to Defendant. On Defendant's Motion, the SC Family Court determined it did not have exclusive continuing jurisdiction over the custody issues and determined Arizona was the more appropriate forum. The Motion to Dismiss was granted.
